The Republican central committee met in Columbus on the 28th for the purpose of appointing a day for holding the county convention. The meeting was well attended, every precinet in the county being represented except one. Saturday, August 21, was selected as the day for holding the county convention and the basis of representation will be one delegate for every ten votes cast for secretary of state in 1890. Baxter Springs will be entitled to 16 delegates. Primaries will be held in Springvalley and Garden townships on Friday, Aug. 20, from 2 to 5 o'clock p. m. and in Baxter Springs from 7 to 9 o'clock p. m. The following county offices are to be filled: Treasurer, sheriff, register of deeds, county clerk, surveyor, coroner and county commissioner for the first

The project for issuing a daily paper during the rennion is meeting with general favor and will supply a want long felt by the old comrades. We shall have a press tent on the ground with facilities for picking up and compiling the news for each day's paper, and our reporters, with the assistance of outside friends, expect to make the Daily Reunion News the most interesting paper ever published July 31. in Cherokee county. Our advertising space is about all taken and we would like to have those who have taken space or wish to take space in the paper send in copy at once as we wish to set up the advertisements and get them in shape.

The Memphis route people have been unusually liberal with the reunion association this year. They have agreed to transport all the tents from Topeka to Baxter and return them free of charge. Also the large Napoleon nish free transportation to the advertising committee. If we have but one railroad it is a good one and has always been very generous to the old soldiers, and to Baxter Springs. Baxter Springs don't claim to be a world's fair city, but she has about as many rustlers to the acre as any of them, and when it was hinted that an this vicinity at the City Hall, Baxter amphitheatre was needed the boys did not wait till next year to consider the matter, but went right to work and meeting has no political significance they will have it all complete in time but is called to advance the interest of for the reunion. We have some kick- all old soldiers and sailors who fought ers and growlers, and hold-back sort of fellows, but the pushers are ahead by a right smart big majority.

Candidates are beginning to come lot of fellows we ever saw. Some of them we have not had the pleasure of meeting for two long years, but they recollect us well, and call us by our front name just as friendly and sociable as if we had been boarding at the same carivansary during all this long back.

Mr. E. Sheldon of Springfield, Mass., was in the city Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Sheldon says most of the eastern money loaners have a holy horror of Kansas, but thinks the immense crops we are now raising will allay their fears. Mr. Sheldon has clerk, has just returned from a long and repealed so as to compel any and made quite large investments in the visit to his home in the "land of state and he thinks they will turn out all right.
